SANGA LENZ

Facilitator and Host

Sanga Lenz is a project manager, facilitator and trainer working at the intersection of civil society, social impact and culture. Most recently, she led a nationwide initiative focused on anti-racism in civic engagement, funded by the German Federal Ministry for Family Affairs. Her work is grounded in a strong commitment to diversity and equity, with a particular focus on facilitation as a tool for inclusive and transformative processes. Combining professional expertise with a participatory approach, she designs and guides collaborative spaces where diverse perspectives can emerge and complex topics can be navigated constructively. As a certified anti-discrimination consultant and Social Justice & Diversity trainer, she supports organizations and groups in fostering meaningful dialogue and sustainable, collectively shaped outcomes. Sanga serves as Alumni-Council President of the New Bridge Program and holds a bachelor's degree from Humboldt University of Berlin and a master's degree from SOAS University of London.
