

Agenda June 12 Conference Day

8:30 a.m.      Registration

9:00 a.m.      Welcome and Introduction

Wolfgang Köhler, Board Member, DZ BANK AG Deutsche Zentral-Genossenschaftsbank

Friedrich Merz, Chairman, Atlantik-Brücke e.V.

Ambassador John B. Emerson, Chairman, American Council on Germany

9:15 a.m.      Setting the Stage: Transatlantic Resilience? The West and the Rest

Remarks by Annegret Kramp-Karrenbauer, Chairwoman, Christian Democratic Union of Germany (CDU)

Followed by a conversation with Tom Buhrow, Director General, WDR German Television

9:45 a.m.      Resilient Democracies or the Waning of the West?

- Is there a “new Cold War” between liberal and autocratic systems?
- Can democratic, as well as multilateral, institutions withstand the rise of autocrats and non-democratic systems?
- How can civil society organizations help counter anti-democratic trends on either side of the Atlantic?

Speakers

Dr. Charles A. Kupchan, Senior Fellow, Council on Foreign Relations and former Senior Director for European Affairs, National Security Council

Dr. Norbert Röttgen, Member of Deutscher Bundestag (CDU) and former Federal Minister for the Environment, Nature Conservation and Nuclear Safety in Germany

In conversation with Tom Buhrow, Director General, WDR German Television

10:30 a.m.      The United States and Germany: Common Challenges and Shared Opportunities

Remarks by U.S. Deputy Secretary of the Treasury Justin Muzinich

In conversation with Professor Dr. Andreas Dombret, former member of the Executive Board of Deutsche Bundesbank and Adjunct Senior Research Scholar at Columbia University in New York

11:00 a.m.      Coffee Break

11:30 a.m. Economic Resilience and the Global Marketplace

- Are the strategies of “America First” and “One Belt, One Road” precursors to a more ruthless world order?
- After the missed opportunity of TTIP, can there be a transatlantic trade and investment policy that sets global standards and norms?
- Do economically successful autocracies contribute to the destabilization of Western political systems?

Speakers

Kate Kalutkiewicz, Senior Trade Representative, U.S. Mission to the European Union

Richard Nikolaus Kühnel, Head of Representation, Representation of the European Commission in Germany

Dr. John Lipsky, Peter G. Peterson Distinguished Scholar, Henry A. Kissinger Center for Global Affairs at Johns Hopkins School for Advanced International Studies and former Deputy Managing Director, International Monetary Fund

Professor Dr. Godelieve Quisthoudt-Rowohl, Member of the European Parliament and Spokeswoman in the Committee on International Trade for the European People’s Party (EPP)

Moderator

Edward Alden, Bernard L. Schwartz Senior Fellow, Council on Foreign Relations

12:30 p.m. Lunch Break

1:30 p.m. Towards Transatlantic Cyber Resilience: New Challenges to Security and Defense Policy

- Who are the digital adversaries of the U.S., the EU, and NATO? Does the West have the policies and technological tools in place to be cyber-resilient against these adversaries?
- Can a secure, rule-based international order in cyberspace be developed?
- How can the West foster a more inclusive transatlantic dialogue to address pressing cybersecurity challenges?

Speakers

Lieutenant General Ludwig Leinhos, First Chief of German Cyber and Information Domain Service

Professor Dr. Christoph Meinel, CEO, Hasso Plattner Institute

Kim Zetter, Senior Staff Reporter, Wired

Moderator

Matthias Nass, International Correspondent, DIE ZEIT

2:30 p.m. The Transatlantic Partnership in 2020

Conversation with Sigmar Gabriel, Member of Deutscher Bundestag (SPD) and former German Foreign Minister

In conversation with Susan Glasser, Staff Writer, The New Yorker

3:15 p.m. Coffee Break

3:45 p.m. Western Resilience in the Face of an Economic and Technological Race with China

- What are the implications of China's dominance in technologies like 5G and Artificial Intelligence for the West? Is there an opportunity for transatlantic cooperation on technological innovation vis-à-vis China?
- As the Trump Administration takes a tougher line on China, what does it mean for U.S. and EU relations with China?

Speakers

Julie Fisher, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of European and Eurasian Affairs, U.S. Department of State

Meg Lundsager, Public Policy Fellow, The Wilson Center for Scholars, and former U.S. Executive Director on the International Monetary Fund's Executive Board

Ambassador Michael Schaefer, former German Ambassador to China and Chairman of the Executive Board, BMW Foundation Herbert Quandt

Dr. Kristin Shi-Kupfer, Director of Politics, Society, and Media, Mercator Institute for China Studies (MERICS)

Moderator

Andreas Winiarski, Chairman & Founding Partner, awesome capital

4:45 p.m. Closing Remarks

5:00 p.m. Conference End