

LUKASZ KONDRACIUK

Lukasz joined the European Exchange in 2024 as a Program Manager for EPDE. Before that, he worked at the International Republican Institute since 2013 and served in a number of roles, most recently as Countering Foreign Authoritarian Influence Advisor. Under that new global portfolio, he provided IRI with technical expertise and assistance in developing program ideas and activities for emerging projects on topics related explicitly to authoritarian and other malign foreign influence and interference and its impact on democracy and governance. Lukasz was also IRI's representative in Germany, developing and cultivating strong relationships with key stakeholders in the country and the region. Until mid-2021, he served as a Program Officer and then Country Director on one of IRI's closed society country programs. Moreover, in 2018, Lukasz served as IRI's acting Director for the Institute's office in Warsaw, Poland, for eight months. Before joining IRI, Lukasz worked for the Foundation for Polish-Ukrainian Cooperation in Warsaw. He holds a master's degree in Linguistics and a postgraduate diploma in Diplomacy and Foreign Service from the Warsaw School of Economics. In addition to his native Polish, he is proficient in Russian and English and has a foundational proficiency in German and Ukrainian.
